Paper Only

20 ways to kick-start your creativity.

Since opening the doors to their studio in May 2009, the Papered

Parlour has welcomed over 5000 participants to their creative workshops and public craft events, winning a loyal following of ardent fans. Step into a world of creativity you never knew existed.

In this, their first book, Parlour founders Claire Heafford and Louise Hall explore one of the most basic and fundamental of all materials: paper. As artists, designers, writers and craft practitioners, the journey of creativity always begins with a blank sheet. Print, cut, sketch and fold your way through the fundamentals of art and design as you push paper to its limits. With over 20 inspiring paper projects, the book draws from a variety of artistic disciplines.
