

Chickenhawk

by MASON, ROBERT

Chickenhawk

A stunning book about the right stuff in the wrong war.

CHICKENHAWK

As a child, Robert Mason dreamed of levitating. As a young man, he dreamed of flying helicopters - and the U.S. Army gave him his chance. They sent him to Vietnam where, between August 1965 and July 1966, he flew more than 1000 assault missions. In CHICKENHAWK Robert Mason gives us a devastating bird's eye view of that war in all its horror as he experiences the accelerating terror, the increasingly desperate courage of a man acting out the role of a hero long after he realises that the conduct of the war is insane, says the New York Times, And we can't stop ourselves from identifying with it.

Price: $9.99 (Top Price is $19.99)

Stock: Plenty Of Stock

Item Code: CHIHAWK

---

ISBN: 9780552160988

Book Format: Paperback

Pages: 399

Dimensions: H 195mm x W 125mm x D 25mm

Weight: 280g

---

