Newlyweds

Jim and Sarah are welcomed home from their honeymoon to the Scottish island of Kinness with a huge celebration - cheerful festivities which take a sinister and devastating turn when the groom's younger sister, Mary, slips and tumbles to her death from the island's precipitous cliffs. The whole island is present when Mary disappears. But did she fall? Or was she pushed? George Palmer-Jones, retired birdwatcher and amateur detective, suspects the latter - but proving it will be difficult, given no one wants to upset the balance of the island's ancient relationships. Helped by Sarah, the bridge, George begins to uncover the secrets hidden on the island, and pieces together a tragic story both wish they had never heard.
